Math journal sharing can be done whole class in the beginning of the year (walk around as students write and take note of any exceptional or thought-provoking responses, and ask those students to share with the group afterward). This is a great opportunity for you to encourage reflective thinking and reinforce your journaling expectations.

A journal should be written at the end of a math exercise. Journal entries should be in a separate book, one used specifically for mathematical thinking.
Math journals should contain specific details about the areas of difficulties and areas of success. The math journal entries should take no more than 5-7 minutes.
