It's a coastal start bias but importantly Venice's starting position is placed before other Civs, meaning they're more likely to start by the coast than any other Civ (this isn't a certainty though!) This is important for building your Great Galleass UU, but also gives you a shot at the Colossus wonder (which gives 2 Trade Routes to Venice rather than ...

Civ 5 Civilizations & Leaders - Carl's Guides

An era is a period of time in Civilization V and its expansions. Civilizations can progress to a new era either by researching all technologies from the current era, or by researching one technology from the next era. In Civilization V: Brave New World, the World Congress progresses through the eras as well, advancing when at least half the civilizations in play reach a new era or one ...

We Go In On ...

In Civ 5 the Mayans had a special calendar, which was quite interesting. I wouldn't mind if many civilizations that use a different calendar in real life could have that particular calendar used in Civ games, like the Mayans did in Civ 5. For example, the Chinese could have their Zodiac calendar and Persians their own system.
