Parshat-Chayei-Sarah: On-Leadership-Beginning-the-Journey

At the beginning of the parsha, the Torah says that Sarah lived to be 127 years old. It seems very peculiar that the name of the parsha is “Chayei Sarah” [the life of Sarah] when Sarah dies in its very first pasuk. Of course, it might not be appropriate to name the parsha “the death of Sarah” (Misas Sarah) but perhaps the parsha could have had a more fitting name, as this is the story of her death and burial, not her life.

God promised Abraham the land, but he had to buy the first field.
