An epic sea adventure set in 1896, Voyage is nearly the equal to Mutiny on the Bounty and though not as stylistically original, a more lively read than Moby Dick. Like Melville, Hayden was an expert on all aspects of sailing, bu Perhaps a more accomplished author than actor, Sterling Hayden never cared much for Hollywood, despite great success, and was a professional sailor before his lengthy acting career.

Voyage by Sterling Hayden - Goodreads

This is the story of Jews leaving Nazi Germany, starting with the voyage of the MS St Louis, bound with Jewish refugees, for Cuba to resettle. The book was cast on real, historical events that did occur, albeit, the characters, with the exception of Captain Schroeder of the MS Saint Louis, are fictional.

The Voyage by Roberta Kagan - Goodreads

My novel "The Voyage," is the story of five young people who boarded the MS St. Louis in Hamburg in hopes of escaping the horrors that awaited them in Nazi Germany. It is a tale of deception, betrayals, friendship, and love. But most of all it is the story of five people bound together forever by a secret they shared on The Voyage.
